

-Where's God when I hurt or struggle?

-I know my life is different with God, but painful places from my past hurt even now.

-There must be more to being a Christian. This does not seem like the abundant life.

-I feel stuck and I don't know how to

- Get moving again
- Go further, deeper
- Grow and move forward

-I believe, Lord, help my unbelief

-If only there was a better way to make a difference in the lives of others in my ministry.

What I Believe

I believe that relationship is the organizing principle of life. What matters most about who we are is whose we are.

God's call on my life is to pray with people for healing, joy, His Shalom for our souls, and restoring us to our identity of promise (how He sees us).

I appreciate that Immanuel Himself wants our healing even more than we do. Ah, the power of lies! And the greater power of Truth and Love!

Healing is coming to trust His light in the dark places of our deepest pain and in our everyday lives. But alas, with our "busted trusters," it is helpful to have someone walk with us as we learn to receive Him.

Growing our relationship with God and growing up in all things is worthy of the risk and the energy it takes. And we can be changed at the cellular and soulular level.

Our only hope is experiencing who God is (whose we are), His help in our understanding of how life works, and how He designed us for relationship with Him (and each other).

*"I've had lots of ministry and never before has my connection to God been this strong. I never lost sight of Him and could sense His presence the whole time. I'm already wondering if this is what God has been calling me to."
(after first time of Immanuel Healing Prayer)*

*"There will never be enough words and actions to express what you mean to me and the tremendous impact you've had and continue to have in my life."
(regularly receives ministry and pastoral care)*
